

Summer Housing Policy

1. Housing selection for summer school, University summer employment, summer research, fellowship and non-fellowship interns must align with one of the following summer school term: (a) 6 week I, (b) 8 week, or the (c) 10 week (5 week I + 5 week II)
 - a. The billing system will process a weekly charge, based on the daily rate, associated with the stated term.
 - b. The student must commit to the entire week as daily charges will not be allowed.
 - c. Refunds will not be provided for early departures (e.g. a student departs during the 7th week of the 8 week term).
2. In addition to housing during a summer school term, students with “summer responsibilities” may request an extended stay accommodation for (A) (Beach week) and/or (b) Extended Stay 1 (the week after commencement).
 - a. Students must submit the Extended Stay 1 Application by the specified date to request a transitional housing arrangements for the week following commencement. In order to be eligible for Extended Stay Housing, you must be classified as one of the following and have a completed Summer 2019 Housing Application:
 - i. Registered Summer School Student
 - ii. University Summer School Student Employee/Worker
 - iii. University Research, Fellowship Interns, and Non-Fellowship Interns
 - iv. Member of approved group or organization (e.g. Athletic team, Graduation Committee)
 - b. If approved, transitional students may continue to live, at no additional expense, in their spring term residence through Spring Commencement. During this week, dining options are limited and hours abbreviated to accommodate reduced demand. Students may continue to access the Heilman Center when open via their meal plan if eligible or may use dining dollars at any operating retail locations. It is recommended that students planning to be in residence this week budget their dining dollars accordingly.
 - i. If a student does not have a valid “summer responsibility” and does not move out prior to beach week, Residence Life & Housing will enforce and charge student accordingly.
 - c. Students will move to transitional housing for the week following commencement. Students will pay the weekly charge (at the daily rate) and Dining options will be available at retail locations on an abbreviated dining schedule.
 - d. Students will move from transitional housing to assigned summer housing at the beginning of the summer term.
 - e. Based on the applications and housing summer term selection, Residence Life & Housing will facilitate matching opportunities to minimize disruption and cleaning redundancies.
 - f. Students will pay for the entire designated summer term – no refunds for either food or housing will be provided for students leaving prior to the end of term.
3. Students with transitional housing needs prior to the fall semester (Extended Stay 2) should contact Residence Life & Housing by July 15th
 - a. Students will be required to move to transitional housing at the end of the summer term.
 - b. Students will commit to the weekly charge, at the daily rate, and there will be no refunds for early departures. Students should expect limited dining options and an abbreviated dining schedule.
 - c. Students will move from transitional housing to their assigned fall semester housing prior to the beginning of the fall term.
